The closing exercises of the Hebrew School was rendered on Sunday, June 11th, 7:30 P. M. at the Synagogue.

A well prepared program was carried out by the pupils of the school. Most of the recitations and class singing were in the Hebrew tongue.

The following children participated in the program:

Abe Rosenstein, Simon Caplan, Geo. Weinstein, Rosa Frankreich, Anna F. Kellin, Lillian Blumenthal, Mollie Dan, Bertha Cohn, Gertrude Gordon, Rebecca Abramowitz, Albert Harris, Anna Spongin, Eliezer Kellin, Joe Abramowitz, Fannie Abramowitz, Joe Raphaeling, Mary Schuster, Sol Wolfson, Sophia Gordon.

Mr. A. Shanblum, president of the Hebrew School, presented his annual report, showing that the number of pupils attending daily is one hundred and eleven, of which thirty-six are girls. They are divided into eight classes and instructed by two teachers, Rabbi Charles Blumenthal and Mr. David Goldberg. There are many pupils besides these who attend the Sabbath School only. These classes are ably assisted by the efficient services of Misses Bessie and Sophia Gordon and Libbie Simon. The president also stated that Mr. Charles Blumenthal was reelected for a term of two years with a salary of $1800 per annum.

Rev. J. Kellin, chairman of the Board of Education, reported that all classes were respectively thoroughly examined by said board every Sunday during the last two months; that the school has shown during the year a great progress; that twenty-six pupils are studying either the Pentateuch or the
